

Henley's Hotel du Vin, the Henley Youth Festival and the Henley Standard invite all budding junior chefs to enter the culinary competition of the year!
Write your own recipe - can be starter, main course or dessert using seasonal, fresh and high quality locally sourced ingredients wherever possible.

Shortlisted finalists will be invited to Hotel du Vin on March 17th for a prize-giving ceremony. The winning recipe(s) will be put onto the Hotel du Vin bistro menu and the winner will be invited back with their families as Henley's Junior food critic to assess the quality and choice of dishes for the kids menu in the future!

Competition Rules

- The entries will be judged in two categories:
Junior (school years 3 - 6) and Senior (school years 7 -13)
Anyone attending a school participating in the Henley Youth Festival, or living in Henley or a nearby village in South Oxfordshire can enter the competition.
- Entrants must submit a bistro style recipe (a starter, main course or dessert) in writing, including the name of the dish, ingredients, cooking methods and ideas for presentation
- Recipes must be seasonal, fresh, of high quality and using locally sourced ingredients wherever possible eg products from local farms
- All entries must be sent by e-mail to Karen Washbourn on: krwashbournhyf@googlemail.com
OR they can be sent/delivered for the attention of Steve Lewis at Hotel du Vin, Henley, New Street.
If you have any queries please email or call Karen on 01491 576132

Closing date for entries: Friday 5th March 2010

If you think you have the creative skills of Gordon Ramsay and can cut it as the next Jamie Oliver now is your chance to show what you can do!
