

The 2012 Henley Youth Festival Art Competition is now open

You can choose any artistic style that reflects the 2012 theme:

Motion

Decide what motion means to you and create an artistic piece. Let your imagination run wild!

Q: When is the closing date?

A: 2nd March 2012

Q: Will my work be displayed?

A: The winning entries and those with special commendations will have their own show at the Henley Youth Centre from 16th – 19th March 2012.

Q: Are there any size restrictions for my artwork?

A: Not really, but please let Charlotte or Jane, details below, know if you are planning something Big!

Q: Who can enter?

A: Anyone who attends one of our participating schools, or lives in Henley or in a nearby village in South Oxfordshire. If you have changed schools to one not on the list, but have previously taken part in the Youth Festival please contact Jane or Charlotte.

Q: Are there any age limits?

A: There are currently 3 categories: Infant (up to 6 years) Junior (age 7 to 11) and Senior (age 12 to 18). These may be subdivided depending on entries at the time.

Q: Will there be prizes?

A: Yes, there will be prizes for all winners. Entries will be judged on imagination, creativity, innovation and interpretation of the theme and will be adjudicated by professional artists. Prizes will be awarded at a ceremony at the Youth Centre on Sunday 18th March from 3.30pm.

Q: How do I enter my piece of artwork into the Competition?

A: Print out and fill in the entry forms below and attach to your piece of artwork carefully. You can either take your artwork to your School or College where it will be collected, or post/deliver to: 45 Northfield End, Henley, RG9 2JJ.
